

It is interesting how the NAB is responding to litigant quality competition. NAB's petition 04-160 should be roundly rejected. Competition should not be stifled but met with new innovation and service by the NAB. Send the NAB a message that they should not allow themselves to be the buggy and whip manufacturers of this century but should become more competitive themselves.